COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING SERVICE Wen. Nov. 23 at 7pm

This year First Church will host the Community Thanksgiving Service. It will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 23rd at 7PM. This is Traditional favorite of Port Orange and will likely have over 200 in attendance. Rev. Dr. Bill Wassner from Port Orange United Church of Christ will preach. Kim Scaccia, our Choir/Children's Director is organizing a community choir with the other Churches involved. I would like to encourage our congregation to serve as hosts, parking help, singers, or greeters as they feel called.

I would also like to offer a fellowship time following the service in Hanstine Hall if we can organize a host committee and light refreshments. Thanks for your help!
Blessings,
Tom

PS. There will be a canned/dried goods offering benefitting Halifax Urban Ministries Port Orange Location at Grace Episcopal Church

“Thanksgiving, A Celebration in Acts”

This Month our Sunday morning theme is “Thanksgiving, A Celebration in Acts”. Each of the first three weeks of November, the sermon will be based on a teaching from the Book of Acts of the Apostles. But, what would make this November special is if we lived out this theme title in our lives.

We believe that our response to God's saving grace through Jesus Christ is to live out our faith in praise, worship and service. Instead of just planning to gorge ourselves on the Third Thursday of the month, I would like to suggest that we become a thankful congregation in word and deed. What can you do to show your thanks to God for God's gracious gift? How can each of us celebrate throughout the month?

I envision this month as a time of celebration. There are cards distributed throughout the campus that say let's celebrate. If you have something to celebrate, grab a card and fill it out. We might even share the good news in worship. We have lost the art of celebrating in the midst of worrying. God prefers the praise.

I also see this month as a chance to reflect on the good things God has done for us. If you are one who likes to journal, perhaps you can make a thank offering to God in words. If you don't journal, maybe this is chance to start. Others may want to focus their prayers for the month on thankfulness.

Finally, what better way to show our thanks than to serve. In the past, we have offered Thanksgiving Meals to those in need or even to those who are just alone. Is God calling you to serve by organizing a special meal for someone in your neighborhood? It might be that you would like to organize a meal at the church for our neighbors. What an awesome way for our church family to express our thanks to all that God has done for us.

I thank God for each of you, and I am excited for us all to live out Thanksgiving as a Celebration of Acts in our daily lives. Thanksgiving is more than a meal, it is the way to live.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow...
Tom

A Year in Review

Tony Sorrell
Youth Minister

I can't believe it's been a year already. It seems like time has flown by since my first day here at First Church on November 1st 2010. I am so thankful for the new friends I, my wife Roseanna, and my daughter Ella, have made. It has been a hard road financially for us but God has truly provided. He blessed us with a church that provided a great money budgeting tool through Financial Peace University. He has provided my wife a very flexible job to allow us some extra income and her to still have valuable time to volunteer at the thrift boutique and student ministry. Not to mention valuable time with our daughter.

It is been a season of prayer. We have had family issues that have truly brought us to our knees seeking God's direction in our lives as well as His interaction in the lives of others. We have a new niece that we have been praying for continued growth as she was born weeks early with severe complications. Roseanna's grandmother needing additional care, an aunt who is suffering with cancer, and her mother who has recently left the area making it harder to visit.

It has also been a great season of ministry. This year we instituted changes in the student ministry programming that has allowed us to effectively minister to students based on their spiritual maturity with a constant challenge to grow in their faith. We've had trips and retreats that have given me opportunities to grow in my relationship with the students. Game nights and trips to CiCi's have been instrumental in growing my friendships with our students. We've seen kids come to know Christ. Adults come on to serve the youth. New students come to be a part of our ministry.

So where does that leave us for 2012? A new youth group name is in the works as well as a group purpose statement. Possible a mission's trip to the Bahamas? Whatever it is, I've learned you can only prepare but so much, the rest you have to trust on God (Proverbs 3:5-6) and hang on for whatever He has in store.

The EDGE
Every Day God Experience

I don't care if I don't see a pumpkin for another year, unless it's in the form of a pie. I am pumpkin-pie and I would suppose that many of you are as well. As this article has to be written before the completion of the patch, I can't post the final numbers but we currently seem to be having a great month. As we look past the pumpkins and towards November, we have some great things on the docket that we need to talk about.

First, it's that time again for the Parent Connect and Potluck night. We'll talk about many of the things coming up for the next three months and elaborate on the following events mentioned in this current news.

We're excited to be talking about the upcoming winter retreats. The high schoolers are going to Seven Springs in Champion, PA for a 6 day ski trip. Seven Springs Mountain Resort (www.7springs.com) has so much to offer aside from great snow slopes. There is tubing, mini golf, bowling, swimming, roller-skating, game room, etc. So even if you are not an avid skier, there is so much to do with your friends.

The middle schoolers have a retreat to Lakeland and Orlando for a great weekend escape. We will be attending a conference called Planet Wisdom (www.planetwisdom.com) on Friday night and Saturday morning. From there we will head over to Downtown Disney and dash to DisneyQuest; Disney's hidden gem of interactive indoor paradise. Then on Sunday we'll visit Hollywood Studios for even more excitement for a day in the park. The cost of the high school trip is $525 with a $100 deposit due on Nov 6th, and the middle school winter retreat is $195 with $50 deposit due on Nov 6th as well.

living with the word

Also in November, we are providing the final fundraiser of the year. It is a Christmas Wreath fundraiser. This fundraiser is for students and parents who want to earn money for their students' trips. Student earn up to $8 per wreath that they sell. The fundraiser is only 1 week long. So there is very little time to dilly dally. This is not a mandatory event. All moneys earned goes straight to the students accounts.

Finally, this November, Second Sunday Super Surprise (S4) is back on November 13th. Students will not need any money but will need to dress for outdoor activities. The times for this S⁴ is 5:00p to 7:30p. It should be lots of fun.

The only thing keeps us from being a part of this great adventure is Christ has for us is our attitude. Philippians 2:5 says, "Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus". So let's get some of that attitude and get on board; or we may get left behind. Feel free to contact Tony Sorrell, youth minister, at tsorrell@firstchurchpo.org with any questions.

LOVE IN STITCHES NOVEMBER

Meetings for the group will be on Nov. 7th, 14th, 21st, and 28th. We meet in Founders Hall from 9 to 1:30 every Monday of the month. We break for lunch at noon and have pizza the 3rd Monday of the month. Please stop in and see "the action"...We have close to 18-20 members every Monday with the return of our Northern friends. Marian Holcombe (former member of our church, now residing in Pa.) came by Oct 17th and brought 24 quilts. Thank You Marian. These will be displayed at a later date.

We hope you enjoyed seeing the quilts displayed on October 9th. Thank you to all who went up and viewed them. This means a lot to our members, as we want to share the joy we feel in their creation..Maybe you noticed someone's name you knew displayed on one of the quilts, We had 15 quilts that are for the Methodist Children's Home in Enterprise and 15 that will go to the Children's Home Society of Florida, office located in the Sunshine Mall. Thank You to Yvonne Irwin for her bountiful work she does for the children.

We say many thanks to the people who have made fabric donations and sewing machine donations. We have many women who love to sew, and they can each have their own machine to work on every week. GOD IS GOOD ... Thank you to our church that provides us a wonderful room to work in and storage space.

Thank you to all. Julie Woods, 756-4534, Lorraine Kisch 756-1870, Anne Steward 788-0411.
